

Pay via PayPal without registering

Here's how this easier checkout works:

1. Customers enter their name and shipping address.
2. They're prompted for their credit card, email address, and phone number.
3. (Optional) After reviewing their information, they may choose to save their information by creating a PayPal account to make future transactions faster.